Newspaper Men Agree Commies "On The Run"

By Sam Summerlin

TEGUCIGALPA, HONDURAS (AP) — Planes of the anti-Communist forces bombed Guatemala City yesterday.

Dispatches from the Guatemalan capital said the National Palace, where leftist President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman was at work, was strafed and an army fort hit with bombs. The two or three plane bombing attack, apparently the biggest air effort of the revolution, was announced shortly after Col. Carlos Castillo Armas' secret "Liberation radio" reported the capture of two towns, Zacapa and Chiquimula, by his invasion forces and declared his army was "striking victoriously" toward the capital.

THE RADIO threatened the bombing of Guatemala City and advised residents to seek cover.

Eight Americans, including a Boston newspaperman who reached the Mexican border from Guatemala City, agreed in a statement that the anti-Communist forces had leftist President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's regime "on the run" after eight days of sporadic clashes and political maneuvers of a nerve war.

The Boston reporter said he had seen 400 wounded government soldiers en route to the capital.

BY A VOTE of 4 to 5, with 2 abstentions, the U. N. Security Council in New York put off further discussions of a Guatemalan complaint of aggression until the organization of American States can look into the situation.

Authoritative invasion sources said rebel planes bombed Ft. Matamoros in Guatemala City, and scored a direct hit on an ammunition dump at Zacapa which "knocked out" the garrison of that town.

"The cold war is getting hot," the informants said.

INFORMANTS here could supply few details of the attacks, but Guatemalan diplomats at the U. N. and in Mexico City said three planes took part in the attack on the capital about 3:30 p. m.

La Merced Church in the center of the city was reported destroyed. The diplomats also reported the bombing of Zacapa and Chiquimula with many fires and some casualties at both places and straggling runs over one or two trains in which seven persons were killed.

ASSOCIATED Press Correspondent Jack Rutledge said in a dispatch from Guatemala City that apparently one plane first attacked the city about 2 p. m., and another shortly after.

Invaders Form Provisional Cabinet Group

TEGUCIGALPA, HONDURAS (AP) — The creation of a provisional government by the anti-Communist Guatemalans, with headquarters at newly captured Chiquimula, 20 miles from the Honduran border, was announced officially by the "Liberation Army" in a communiqué last night.

The new government is headed by the leader of the revolution, Col. Carlos Castillo Armas.

The sixth communiqué put out by the rebel leaders said Chiquimula was seized this morning and "hundreds of citizens presented themselves to enlarge the ranks of our army" there.

It added that "the triumph of our forces was jubilantly celebrated by the civilian population which was happy to see themselves free of the Red claw."

Chiquimula, a town of 8,848 people, straddles the branch railway which links El Salvador with the main line connecting the east and west coasts by way of Guatemala City, the capital.

The makeup of the Cabinet will be announced probably today, it was said.

Hurricane Sweeps Over Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE, TEX. (AP) — Small but stinging, hurricane Alice sprung out of the Gulf of Mexico onto the Mexican coast south of here yesterday, tail-whipping Brownsville and killing one person.

The first of the season, it also left one known injured, one shrimp boat in distress and small boats beached. Reports of minor property damage poured in.

Rains beat down on the lower Rio Grande valley of Texas, where crops grow lush the year round and cotton was turning white for picking.

At its height, the center of the hurricane had winds of 80 miles an hour—only five miles above hurricane strength—and the winds quickly diminished as the storm hit land.

Usual Contract

PITTSBURGH (AP) — David J. McDonald, president of the CIO United Steelworkers, said yesterday the contract which will eventually be signed with U. S. Steel Corp. and other basic steel producers will not be "revolutionary."

Senate Warns International Communism To Shun Americas

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate, acting against the background of civil war in Guatemala, adopted 69-1 yesterday a resolution warning "international Communism" away from the Americas.

Senators generally regarded it as "a modern interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine," proclaimed in 1823 when an alliance of European powers proposed to overthrow democratic governments erected from former colonies of Spain in the Western Hemisphere.

Four Lawyers Are Charged In Tax Matter

NEW YORK (AP) — Four associates working out of New York law firm were charged yesterday with a top level plot to fix income tax cases and to block tax scandal investigations. The government called them "human vultures."

So solidly were they in with crooked revenue agents, it was alleged, that they learned about criminal tax investigations before even the persons being investigated knew of them. Then they sought these targets out as clients for a fix, the government contended.

"These defendants are charged with being big time fixers," said Asst. U. S. Atty. Alfred P. O'Hara at their arraignment. "These are not the minnows. They were the big fish."

THE OTHERS were named co-conspirators although not defendants—including Daniel A. Bolich, former No. 2 man in the Internal Revenue Bureau, and Henry The Dutelman Grunwald, Washington's mysterious wire puller.

The federal indictment charges all 14 with conspiring to silence witnesses and block investigations into tax scandals by a Brooklyn federal grand jury and a House Ways and Means subcommittee.

O'Hara claimed some witnesses were induced to lie outright to investigators.

THE FOUR defendants also were accused of handling at least $160,000 in bribes to fix tax cases with internal revenue officials.

New Shakeup Cuts FHAMen From Posts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two more veteran officials of the Federal Housing Administration were suspended yesterday on charges of "serious irregularities."

As in a number of other cases announced since a major shakeup of the agency was started last April, no details of the charges against the men were given out.

The latest suspensions are: James E. Hicks, 61, regional director for 10 southeastern states and Puerto Rico.

Andrew Frost, 43, of Albuquerque, assistant state director for New Mexico.

BOTH MEN declined to comment, saying they wanted to find out more about the charges against them first.

Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole said he asked the FHA to suspend the men on the basis of information furnished by William F. McKenna, who has been conducting a special investigation of FHA operations.

McKenna is slated to be the first witness at the opening of public hearings Monday by the Senate Banking Committee. In announcing this last week, Chairman Capehart (R-Ind.) said a preliminary inquiry already had produced evidence pointing toward collusion among some builders and government housing officials.

CAPEHART said hearings probably will continue the rest of this year on scandals that broke into the open with President Eisenhower's removal of Guy T. O. Hollyday as federal housing administrator on April 12.

That announcement set off a round of disclosures of alleged "fleeing" of householders by home repair crews and profiteering by some apartment house builders and promoters. Some of the alleged practices date back several years; others continued until recent months.

Frost has been with FHA since 1934, the year it was organized. He started as a messenger and rose to assistant state director for New Mexico in 1950.

Hicks joined the agency in 1935 as officer manager in Little Rock, Ark. He came to Washington the following year and has been here since. From 1944 to 1950 he was director of personnel, and before taking charge of his present region he was director for the southwestern states.

Both men were suspended for 90 days.

It was 61 in Stroudsburg at 8 a. m. yesterday and 72 degrees here at 11 last night, Lake said.

95 Degrees Blister The Stroudsburgs

THE MERCURY hit a sizzling 95 degrees in Stroudsburg yesterday but it was still one degree below this week's peak reading of 96.

According to weather observer Pierre Lake the low for the preceding 24-hour period was 58 degrees.

Aggression Complaint Sidetracked

By Francis W. Carpenter

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Despite Russian cries that Guatemala City was being bombed while diplomats talked, the U. N. Security Council yesterday put off further discussion of the Guatemalan complaint until the Organization of American States can take action.

Four members of the Council voted to adopt an agenda listing the Guatemalan complaint of "aggression" for debate. Five members voted against it and two abstained. Seven affirmative votes were needed to approve this procedural motion.

The Soviet Union fought a losing battle to have a debate in the Security Council as asked by Guatemala. Russia voted with Lebanon, New Zealand and Denmark to put the issue on the agenda.

The United States, Brazil, Colombia, Turkey and Nationalist China voted against it.

BRITAIN AND France abstained.

The Council adjourned immediately after the vote after having been in continuous wrangling session nearly five hours.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U. S. delegate and Council president, strongly opposed further debate in the Council at this time, saying that the charter of the Organization of American States required that all disputes in the American states should be taken to the OAS before being brought to the Council.

Semyon K. Tsarapkin, Soviet delegate, bitterly assailed Lodge on the grounds that the United States was trying to undermine the U. N. Charter and told the Latin-American countries to beware of the United States.

TSARAPKIN said during the hot debate that while the delegates talked here the capital of Guatemala was being bombed.

He did not give details to the U. N. Eduardo Castillo Arriola, told a reporter that he had called the foreign minister, Guillermo Toriello, about 5:30 p. m. EDT and that he was told three planes were bombing the city as they talked on the telephone. He said La Merced Church in the city had been destroyed by bombs.

Lodge and Tsarapkin slugged verbally for most of the latter part of the meeting. Lodge told the Council that the U. S. Senate passed by a bipartisan vote yesterday a resolution warning "international communism" away from the western hemisphere.

Tsarapkin snapped back that this was a "cry of wolf" so familiar to the Russians. He said that the U. N. Charter apparently is "invalid when aggression occurs on the American continent."

The Council adjourned without setting a date for its next meeting.

Steelworker Drowns

BEDFORD (AP) — Boyd Blough, 29, a Johnstown steelworker, drowned yesterday when the boat in which he and two other men were fishing capsized on Shawnee Lake in nearby Shawnee State Park.

Blough was with the boat when it tipped over, and the other two men were rescued.

The body was recovered by a fisherman and taken to the shore.

Nationalist China Announces It Seized Russian Tanker For Blockade Running

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, Saturday, announced it had seized a Russian tanker because it was bound for "Communist bandit" Shanghai in defiance of the Nationalist blockade.

In a stiff note raising the threat of a clash on the Far East's troubled seas, Russia Friday accused the U. S. Navy of seizing the 8, 840-ton tanker Tuapse Wednesday 125 miles south of Formosa.

Russia threatened "appropriate measures for safeguarding" Soviet ships in this area, where the U. S. 7th Fleet guards Formosa from Red invasion and small Nationalist warships watch the coast. That could mean sending Soviet warships to guard Russian Merchantmen.

Senate Sends Armed Forces $28 Billion Money Measure To President For Signing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate passed and sent to President Eisenhower yesterday a bill appropriating $28,800,125,486 for the nation's armed forces in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

In a busy session, it also approved two other big appropriation measures.

One was a $1,982,000,000 bill to finance the Labor and Health, Education and Welfare departments during the next 12 months.

This goes to a conference committee for adjustment of differences between it and a House version.

The other was a record of $170,438,847 measure for District of Columbia operations next year. The total is $1,951,600 more than the House voted, so it, too, must go to conference.

Action on all the legislation was by voice vote.

THE DEFENSE bill, by far the largest of all the appropriations measures, is the fifth of the eleven regular money bills on which Congress has completed action. Final figures were worked out in a Senate-House conference.

About 11 billion is budgeted for an enlarged air force, 10 billion for the Navy, 7½ billion for a pared-down Army and the balance for the general defense establishment.

The Army bears the brunt of most of the 5½-billion-dollar reduction from last year's appropriation.

THE DEFENSE appropriation for the next fiscal year is the lowest since 1950, when fighting in Korea broke out, and is about one billion dollars less than Eisenhower requested.

For the Labor and Welfare departments, the Senate approved $12,604,000 more than the House and $17,697,500 more than the President recommended.

There was no announcement on specific subjects covered but the Indian Foreign Office said beforehand Indochina and Korea would head the agenda. The conversations between Chou, leader of 500 million Chinese, and Nehru, leader of 350 million Indians, could foreshadow great changes in the history of Asia.

ACROSS THE WORLD Prime Minister Churchill and President Eisenhower began talks in Washington aimed at wiping out misunderstandings between the two major powers of the anti-Communist world. Many believe Chou's decision to confer with Nehru here at the same time as the Churchill-Eisenhower meetings was no coincidence.

Last night Nehru invited Chou to a private dinner following a reception at sprawling government house, residence of President Rajendra Prasad.

Wearing his usual spotless white jacket with a red rose in his buttonhole, Nehru drove to Palam airfield in the Indian capital's 100-degree heat to welcome Chou, who was clad in a plain black suit that set him apart both from his Indian host and his own grey uniformed Chinese entourage.

Atomic Plans Part Of First Day's Talk

By John Seali

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Churchill yesterday began a round of momentous conferences aimed at ending a grave American-British split on the best way to cope with aggressive communism.

But before getting down to the touchy subject of Red expansion in Southeast Asia, the two leaders talked over plans to exchange atomic information and add German manpower to European defenses against communism.

They apparently decided to delay until today and detailed discussion of their sharply conflicting Far Eastern policies. The United States wants a united front against Communism there and looks with grave misgivings at a British plan to approach the problem by signing a nonaggression pact with the Reds.

FOR MORE THAN three hours, Churchill and Eisenhower sat down in the White House and turned their first attention to their joint desire for a greater sharing of atomic secrets.

The wartime American-British plan of cooperation on atomic matters has long since lapsed, but Eisenhower has proposed legislation to give certain information on the military use of atomic weapons to allies for common defense purposes.

The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee late yesterday unanimously endorsed the principle of the proposal but left undecided the question just how far the government could go in divulging information.

BROADLY SPEAKING the bill as endorsed by the committee would allow the President to give an allied nation or regional defense organization information on:

1—The development of atomic defense plans.

2—Training military personnel to use atomic weapons and defend against them.

3—The "evaluation of the capabilities of potential enemies in the employment of atomic weapons."

EISENHOWER AND Churchill also reviewed prospects for speeding up the formation of a six-nation European army, of which German troops would be a part. This program is now stalled because the French have delayed ratifying it, in large part because of fear of a rearmaged Germany.

French Premier Mendes-France was reported yesterday to have announced the United States that he intends to obtain a vote in the National Assembly on a modified version of this European Defense Community treaty in a reasonably short time.

In turn, American officials were said to have told Mendes-France that they are not exploring any alternative means for bringing Western German forces into a common defense setup. There had been reports that Churchill, in his talks with Eisenhower, might press for some alternative plan. One such plan, for example, would be to bring a rearmaged Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

BUT THE ASSURANCES to Mendes-France apparently mean that the United States is not prepared to discuss alternatives with Churchill now, in the hope that France will finally ratify an acceptable version of EDC.

The White House, in a terse announcement of what Eisenhower and Churchill discussed yesterday, mentioned only atomic information and the EDC. Informed officials reported they also briefly touched on Russia's policies and intentions throughout the world.

Secretary of State Dulles and Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who have been openly critical of each other's foreign policy decisions, joined in a 2½-hour afternoon meeting in the President's second floor White House study.

* The vastness of the beach holds no terrors for her. She knows that some one is watching, ready to protect her at the first sign of danger.

Do you ever feel alone? Does the vastness of the universe and the smallness of yourself threaten to overcome you?

In the Church you will find you are not alone. Here you will find others who share similar experiences, and working together, you will discover that fear need have no part in your life.

Make yourself a part of this great family. Look around you in God's world and realize that He is ever present, always ready to give strength and comfort. Through the Church you will learn to draw ever closer to God and His strength will protect you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Policing Fund Raisers

Hardly a week goes by but that all of us are beset on all sides by pleas for money donations. These come from a wide variety of charitable organization, civic clubs, welfare and patriotic groups and other worthy-sounding outfits that many of us don't know from a bale of hay.

It was inevitable that third parties would take over for us on so many charitable fronts as our population soared and our society became so complex. It's a far cry for all of us today from the old pioneer days when neighbor looked out for neighbor. Many of us today don't even know our neighbors.

As a result, organization has been piled upon organization, all of them needing money and most of them doing wonderful work in fields that cover the human waterfront—from caring for orphans to doing research and helping victims of any number of afflictions.

This all runs into millions and millions of dollars across our country. Right here in our area, it is an annual story of thousands and thousands of dollars, all of it given by the public.

With all of this money, it was inevitable that the phonies would crop up in their quest for the easy buck. Some of them really coin it, turning an appeal into a private mint with a setup of overhead, commissions and salaries that may leave only 10 cents of every donated dollar actually winding up doing the charitable work for which it was asked.

Just as inevitably, controls and regulations have come in. This week, a Joint State Government Subcommittee held hearings on Pennsylvania's one-year-old Solicitation Act, debating ways and means better to protect the public against fund-raising excesses.

All of this is much easier said than done. At one end of the scale are the fast buck operators who should be clipped. At the other are the many legitimate organizations which must not be hamstrung because of the excesses of the few.

Dr. Karl T. Compton

The man who received the highest honors it is possible for the American military service to bestow on a civilian is dead.

Dr. Karl T. Compton played a leading role in our development of the atomic bomb. During the cold war years when research and laboratory science were so tremendously important to us, he directed our country's scientific policy as head of the seven-man Research and Development Board of the National Military Establishment. He was the only civilian on the board, carrying tremendous responsibility and wielding tremendous personal power. Under his leadership, our country took the lead in an army of secret-shrouded projects that represent the arsenal of strength which may prevent another war or win one for us, if it has to come.

Few scientists, if any, have contributed so much to make our country strong and great, as did Dr. Compton. In his death, we have lost a great American.

When A Smoker Needs A Friend

Nobody, and this includes the tobacco interests, wants to brush off scientific reports indicating that cigarettes cause, or contribute to, death from the most awesome of diseases. The cigarette companies have for the past few years been conducting exhaustive research into removing dangerous ingredients. Nevertheless the cigarette, it seems to us, is suffering from a heavy kicking around. That smoking to excess is bad is no new discovery. We can't remember a time when anybody said otherwise. But the finding that between the age of 50 and 70 a man's life is shortened by cigarettes could also be applied to double martini, dog-wagon hamburgers, stud poker, Welsh rarebits, soft-shell crabs on toast, too much beer and too many trips to the loo for midnight snacks.

It could probably be shown that college professors who make exhaustive investigations into the damaging effects of cigarette smoking die earlier than professors who don't. We have heard reports that "Open the window and let some of this smoke out!" is a frequent cry in laboratories where the experts are hard at work. A careful preparation of charts can show many things in any given hunt, and it might be shown that men who wear suspenders outlive men who wear belts and that between the ages of 45 and 65, men who worry over baseball boxscores crack up faster than golf enthusiasts. While there is no proof the fellow who pours catsup all over the restaurant pork chop dies before the man who uses a dash or two, the restaurant owner who watches them deplete his catsup supply expires sooner than either, research might prove.

Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond and Dr. Daniel Horne, who made the finding on cigarettes, reported that the pipe and cigar smokers were in relatively no danger. (The pipe smoker is so busy keeping the pipe lit he is made more physically fit through sheer exercise. And the cigar addict's life is lengthened by the fact that, unlike the cigarette smoker, he doesn't have to worry so often over whether he put the butt out in the TV room and who burned the hole in the mahogany table.)

Not that we are belittling the report. It is a serious matter and the cigarette producers realize it as much as the scientists. There will be a solution. A safe cigarette is coming. But the thing to remember is that "Nothing succeeds like EXCESS" is a great American misconception. It is hard to produce anything which shouldn't be taken with reasonable moderation. (This goes, too, for charts and tables.)

Our forefathers had faults but they never called the henhouse a split-level country home. The bills for Father's Day are beginning to reach the old man and he is hotter at the moment than when the first gift came marked "Collect." . . . This is the season when many a scientist and engineer looks pretty bad as he tries to untangle the folding lawn furniture. . . . Remember away back when almost any threat could be put down through one gunshot and 50 marines? . . . Victor Borge refers to Brahms as "that well-known composer, Joe E. Brahms." . . . The screen version of Caine Mutiny is pretty wonderful with Bogart, Ferrer, Johnson and MacMurray. . . . "Quick Lunch" won a $32,000 race at $11 the other day. . . . Had it handed to him on a platter, no doubt, and set a new record for the distance, without bicarbonate of soda. . . . Mark Bennett is going to act in an Abbott & Costello revival of the Keystone Cops and it cheers us up no end. . . . Hank Mann, Chester Conklin, Andy Clyde and one or two other original Keystone comedies are still alive and will be in the film. . . . Curious twist in the Pentagon-McCarthy shindig is that some Senators who were loud in their claims they wanted Communies fired are now concentrating on firing their enemies! . . . Criticism of Ray Jenkins as having disqualified himself for work with committee by admission that if McCarthy offered to speak for him, should he run for Senate, he would accept, is amusing. . . . Fact is that Jenkins stated he hadn't even decided to run. . . . "Meet the Press" boys crowded him with direct question whether, in case he ran, he would accept a McCarthy offer to speak, and he made perfectly honest reply. . . . To have said he would never accept McCarthy offer would have been the disqualifying attitude, it says in our book. "Times" color photos of great golf holes included the ninth at the Yale course and took us back to the days when we played it often and were never more scared than when we came to it. . . . The water carry alone is something like 160 yards. If we remember rightly. . . . We don't think Eisenhower, starting to cross the channel for the invasion of Europe, ever saw more water than we thought we saw the first time we came to this hole. . . .

Dulles, Fulbright Study Anglo-American Relations

Washington—Amid all the talk about strained Anglo-American relations, two leading U. S. officials voiced some significant views during a private discussion of the subject.

They are Secretary of State Dulles and Senator J. William Fulbright (D., Ark.), Rhodes Scholar and one-time university president.

Dulles was explaining the problems he is encountering in dealing with the critical situation in Southeast Asia, particularly those raised by the British. He displayed impatience at their attitude.

"The British are still our strongest friends, aren't they?" asked Fulbright.

"Yes, they are," replied Dulles. "However, our only tie of alliance with the United Kingdom is the treaty which relates to the North Atlantic pact—NATO. We do not have a worldwide alliance in a technical sense, and therefore, perhaps the term ally should not be used as loosely as it generally is in connection with Britain. That implies certain things that are not actually a fact so far as Britain and we are concerned."

"Is it true," continued Fulbright, "that the U. S. government does not feel we should undertake a solitary policy and that we should not go our own way regardless of Britain in the Far East? Is that a correct interpretation of your position?"

"I would not wish to make an answer that would seem to suggest that we concede the United Kingdom has a veto over anything we might do," said Dulles. "The situation could become such that we would feel we have to act whether or not the British went along with us. I earnestly believe that we should do everything in our power to find a basis for going along together. But at the same time, I don't think we should tell the world that we will never do anything anywhere unless Britain gave consent to it. I don't think that's wise either."

The Ladies—Mrs. Robert Low Bacon, widow of the New York Republican Representative and the recognized GOP social leader of Washington, has organized a new club. It's called the "Point-of-Order" Club and the avowed purpose is to oppose Senator McCarthy inside the Republican party. . . . Damara Bolte, daughter of General Charles Bolte, Vice Chief of Staff of the Army, is majoring in animal husbandry and has a job for the summer on a farm at Woodstock, Md. Miss Bolte also is a sculptress, specializing in animal figures. . . . Dr. Carlos Davila, new Secretary-General of the Organization of American States, brings to his job three lovely young ladies. Two of them are his daughters, Luz and Paz, and the third is his second wife. She is the former Frances Adams, an American-born writer who met Davila when he was editor of La Nacion. Previously, he had been Chilean Ambassador to Washington and president of Chile.

Sparks—Admiral Arthur Rad-

ford has written a top congressional leader that an increase in the military budget is still a possibility. The head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff said a new study is being made of the "force levels" (strength) of the three armed services. Radford gave no indication when this survey will be completed. But he stated it will be placed before President Eisenhower and would be acted on by the National Security Council. . . . The disclosure during the Army-McCarthy hearings that Secretary Stevens had conferred with Democratic Senator Stuart Symington was a complete surprise to Defense Secretary Wilson. He told aides the revelation was the first he knew about the matter, and indicated he didn't like it. . . . The 1954 platform adopted by the Wisconsin Republican Convention says nothing about Senator Joe McCarthy. Closest reference to him is a commendation of the "Republican representatives in Congress for their activities in behalf of Wisconsin's Indian population." On the other hand, the platform enthusiastically . . . acclaims the "Republican national administration for restoring honesty and integrity in Washington and permitting Americans once again to regard their national leadership with respect." The platform also "reaffirms our conviction that intolerance and prejudice have no place in the hearts of men."

Admiral Arthur Radford's next important speech will be at Norfolk, Va., June 30, at the graduating exercises of the Armed Forces Staff College. His addresses are now being closely scanned by the White House and therefore of special significance. . . . It may or may not mean anything, but Army Secretary Stevens has no speeches scheduled after this month; his last one is on June 28. All other cabinet members have talks lined up for them through next November. But Stevens' schedule ends this month; he has no other bookings.

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Police State Type Monitored Telephone Calls Should Be Forbidden By Congress

In a free society, government is an instrument of the people to perform such tasks as they choose to do in common. Under our Constitution, the Federal Government is permitted to perform limited duties, but all rights are stipulated as belonging to the States and the people thereof. The Federal Government may not lawfully expand its authority or the tasks which it is designated to undertake. A constitutional amendment may increase the Federal responsibility, but such an amendment can only be passed by the consent of the States.

In a word, the American Constitution recognizes the peril to the people in a tautly centralized government. While the term, police state, was unknown to the Founding Fathers, the concept was clear to them and is duly described in the Declaration of Independence in the following clauses in which is stated the attitude of George III to the rights of the people in the American Colonies:

"He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers."

"He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries."

"He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

"He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power."

In the recent McCarthy-Stevens hearings the ethical question of monitored telephone calls arose. It was admitted that such telephone calls were illegal and it took the Committee weeks to have these calls admitted in evidence by consent of the parties concerned. The morals of the issue are more important than the legalities. The assumption must be that an American citizen is free to address an official of his government without fear or damage. The Right of Petition is stipulated in the First Amendment to the Constitution, and while this right relates to "a redress of grievances," the nature of the grievances is not stated.

The telephone had not been invented when the Constitution was signed and correspondence was written by quill pens. With the widespread use of the telephone, citizens may speak to their officials by means of this instrument. Along with the telephone have come a number of devices for placing an unknown, unannounced witness to a conversation, in which instance only one of the parties is cognizant of the presence of the witness. It is also possible to tap the telephone wires by mechanical devices, in which instance neither of the parties to the conversation may know that a witness is present. It is also possible to record a telephone conversation for permanent reference. This is illegal unless a beep is provided which is sounded at regular intervals so that both parties may know that they are being monitored. No distinction can be made in ethics or in law between the use of a mechanical device or a human being to monitor telephone calls.

What such a recording means is that the casual word, spoken without caution, may be recalled months or years later when the party who did not monitor the call may not remember that it ever took place. Now that the hearings are over, I can cite this example: John Adams, counsel to the Secretary of the Army, who did not monitor his calls to me, says that he spoke to me on February 5, 12 and 16. I only recall that he telephoned to me on February 16 but must assume that he made the other calls because he said so. But his memory is apparently as poor as mine because what he said he spoke to me about on February 5, he actually spoke about on February 16. Had that call been monitored, the last minute of it would have made us both appear to be ridiculous because the language was not of the very best, both of us ending on a bantering note.

As long as government officials insist upon committing an illegal act, citizens will be justified in refusing to talk to them by telephone. I certainly shall avoid such risk in the future. In the police state, the monitored telephone is a normal instrument for the control of the people by their officials. The procedure should be forbidden by Act of Congress.

You're Telling Me

We see where Pierre Mendes-France has been named French premier, the 20th since World War II. Premiers of France must regard the post, at best, as just part-time employment.

The man at the next desk wonders if when a fellow is named premier of France he just takes a leave-of-absence from his regular job.

F. E. F. adds an ex-premier of France is about as much of a celebrity as a Kentucky Colonel. At that, the Colonels have an edge. No worries in their "job."

New Jersey's state legislature has passed a bill permitting farmers to use firecrackers to scare away blackbirds from their fields. Now Junior will yearn for life on the old farm—where every day is like Fourth of July!

A Japanese politician, age 97, who never lost an election in 55 years, quits. Probably decided there's no longer a kick in winning.

Things I Never Knew Till Now (But which you knew all along)

There is no record of Sherlock Holmes ever having uttered the cliche, "Elementary, my dear Watson," in any of the Conan Doyle stories. Old Sheri never said more than "Elementary" (once in a rare while) when addressing The Good Doctor. . . . In ancient Egypt when a papyrus died all members of the household went into strict mourning and shaved off their eyebrows. (O, don't skip! This gets better as you yawn along) . . . Wait a trice! . . . A trice is the 60th part of a second. . . . The white man introduced scalping into the South-west. They learned it from the Indians of the Great Plains and used it to terrify the Apaches. . . . Think you have it tough paying taxes? John Morton (financial advisor to Henry VII) laid down this rule! "Those who have made us both appear to be ridiculous because the language was not of the very best, both of us ending on a bantering note."

As long as government officials insist upon committing an illegal act, citizens will be justified in refusing to talk to them by telephone. I certainly shall avoid such risk in the future. In the police state, the monitored telephone is a normal instrument for the control of the people by their officials. The procedure should be forbidden by Act of Congress.

Know what happens to your metabolism when you fall in love? The working of the body suddenly improves, making the arteries dilate so that more blood is sent to every part of the body. The pulse becomes firmer, the skin healthier and more elastic and the breathing deeper. Infectious diseases are resisted as never before. . . . So you see, those love songs aren't exaggerations, after all.

Among other things I still dunno is why they never name a newspaper The Moon. You can get The Globe, the Sun and the Star but no Lil Of Moon. . . . Think you're underpaid? Harry von Tiber wrote more than a dozen songs for vaudeville stars at $2 per ditty. . . . George Gershwin's first song, "When You Want 'Em You Can't Get 'Em," was peddled for 5 bars. . . . They say your eyes indicate how long you'll live. If you don't need specs until you're 50 you'll probably live past 70. . . . Psychologists contend the best thing to wear is something white—if a girl wants to trap a feller into a wedding. (Virtuous, pure, blab-blah-bleh) . . . There's a Chinese adage which sez: "There is no economy in going to bed early to save candles if the result be twins."

When Churchill autographed his book of wartime speeches, "Blood, Sweat and Tears," to FDR he inscribed: "A few more eggs from the old hen" . . . Betcha didn't even know the name of the Negro National Anthem: "Lift Every Voice and Sing." James Weldon Johnson takes that bow. . . . That the U. Howcum likker adds show-ing dawgs are taboo in Utah newspapers. . . . Originally, a snob wasn't a snooty person but a commoner. ### Looking At Life

—by Erich Brandeis

Have you ever stopped to think, in the process of living, what you are really living for?

Have you ever wondered what life really means? There must be more to life than mere existence.

It cannot possibly be, as the communists preach, and as it says in some of their writings: I am fighting for wages. For pay. For a glass more of beer. For better cigars. For costlier clothes. To get rid of rags. Well, so I am. But only incidentally. I am really fighting for life.

If that were true, what would be the use of love, of hope, of charity, of religion?

If that were true, life would be something like the unknown dog who came to our house one night, knocked over the garbage can and filled his stomach with the offal.

If that were true we humans would be no more than the animals to whom we have never ascribed a soul, whose after-life we have never acknowledged and whole entire life on this earth, we have always maintained, is only a matter of instincts.

Leo Tolstoy, the Russian writer with all the factual philosophy of the Russian, wrote "I spend my life thus: I eat, talk, and listen; I eat, write and read—that is, talk and listen again; I eat and play; I eat, talk and listen again; I eat and go to bed; and so on, day after day."

And that he calls LIFE!

Life would, indeed, be hardly worth the living if all of it, or even a great part of it, were spent only in chasing after material things.

It is true, of course, that in the daily race for existence itself and for material comforts and economic betterment, little time is left for spiritual thoughts.

But let me tell you that the only kind of living worth while is a sensible mixture of materialism and spiritual seasoning.

A life without the spice of love, of hope, of charity and all the other condiments that make the human being distinct from the animal, certainly would not be worth even a five dollar tombstone.

A human being whose entire time was taken up by material things would have no rightful place in a cemetery of humans.

A newspaper reporter asked Bob Hope how he could possibly find time for six radio shows a week, one television show a month, for guest shows, tournaments and benefits and for all his other activities.

He replied "By sleeping four hours a night."

Wouldn't it be a good idea for all of us—since most of us can't get along on four hours of sleep a NIGHT—to devote at least one hour a WEEK to THINKING?

We could think about what we have done for others this week. Or how many people we have hurt during the past seven days and how many we have helped.

We could think about the wonderful opportunities God has given us to be HUMAN, and how little or how much we have used these opportunities.

We could plan, as we think, how to utilize our time on this earth to better advantage than we have heretofore.

In other words, we could, at least one hour a week, live as human beings.

Although the female Indian elephants have very small tusks, those of African elephants are large and are used extensively in feeding.

Selection of symbolic state birds is a modern custom started by Kentucky when it picked the cardinal in 1926.

With an automatic spraying device 250 traffic stop signs can be finished in an hour.

Civil Defense Approves Over $12,000 Worth Of Equipment

Saylorsburg, Barrett To Get Material

A $9,200 PIECE of fire equipment will arrive in Saylorsburg in August and approval for $3,758 in communication equipment was given Barrett Township by the Federal Civil Defense according to Paul Crawn, executive director of Monroe County's CD program.

Crawn disclosed the allocations last night after receiving confirmation from the State Council of Civil Defense.

The apparatus earmarked for Blue Ridge Hook and Ladder Company, Hamilton Township is now being manufactured by the General Fire Truck Company of St. Clair-Shores, Mich. according to Hugh H. Hoke, State CD equipment expediter.

APPROVED UNDER the federal government's matching fund program, the 750-gallon-per-minute pumper will cost the township $4,600, the other half being contributed by the government.

George Kitchen, fire chief, said the apparatus will augment equipment currently being used in the township. A 350-gallon pumper secured in 1942 and a utility truck at Blue Ridge's other pieces of equipment.

Plans call for converting the old pumper into a combination apparatus by adding a larger booster tank, Kitchen said.

The Saylorsburg company also has requisitioned 1,000-feet of 2½-inch hose, 400-feet of 1½-inch hose under the CD setup, but approval for this equipment still is pending.

WITH THE NEW $9,200 pumper will come an extension ladder, roof ladder, nozzles and fittings, Kitchen said. The pumper was requisitioned two years ago, immediately following the Civil Defense administration's disclosure of the matching fund program.

Barrett Township's fire company has been given approval for receipt of the communication equipment, $1,879 of the total to be paid by the local group. The equipment will be used for both civil defense and fire purposes.

East Stroudsburg also is awaiting word for approval of communication equipment, but that sanctioned has not been processed, it was reported by Crawn.

MARSHALL REESE, Barrett Township CD director, listed the approved radio equipment as three mobile transmitters and receivers, a base station and two walkie-talkies, or portable communication systems. This will provide the township with a two-way communication setup, Reese said.

Reese said it is hoped the equipment will leave the General Electric Co. factory by July 1 because employee vacations are due after that date. If not ready by then, Reese said, it is anticipated the equipment will be ready August 1.

This bird means business!

(He makes 11,000 calls every day—delivers 4,000,000 babies a year!)

These days, the stork is working overtime.

He established the all-time record last year when he delivered almost four million babies in the U.S.A. Four million—that's about 11,000 new customers every single day!

Our population is growing so fast that every month we add enough people to make a city the size of Richmond, Va.

What does this astonishing population increase mean to American business?

Simply this: an ever-increasing need for everything America makes, everything America eats, everything America wears. Everything.

And this is just one reason why you are living in the age of America's greatest opportunities. Here's just a small sample of the big changes that are taking place:

1. We have more jobs—Even though employment in some areas has fallen off, we still have twenty million more jobs than we had in 1939. Nine times more Americans are in the $5,000-plus income bracket than in 1941!
2. We have more money—In spite of inflation and higher prices, the American people have over twice as much spending power now as they had in 1940.
3. We have more savings—Individual savings in America rose from $68.5 billion in 1940 to about $250 billion in 1953.
4. We have more farm output—52% more per man-hour than we had in 1940—and this in spite of a net shift of almost six million away from farms since that year!
5. We have more leisure time—Forty million Americans now get paid vacations—a great boon to the hotel and transportation business, to the sports, entertainment and hobby fields.
6. We'll soon have atomic energy driving locomotives, planes, power plants. Barring war, the atomic age should be America's greatest age!
7. We have a $500 billion backlog of needs that must be filled. We need $40 billion for schools... $60 billion for highways... $100 billion for housing... $300 billion for durable equipment. All this we need and more—much more!

It's plain to see that every businessman, housewife, laborer, white-collar worker, farmer—every one of us—is living on the threshold of America's greatest age of opportunity!

The better you know America,
the better the future looks!

Sen. Haluska Is Under Fire At Hospital

HARRISBURG, PA. (AP)—A top official of the United Mine Workers Welfare and Retirement Fund yesterday called on the board of trustees of Miners Hospital to fire State Sen. John J. Haluska, hospital administrator.

A letter signed by Dr. Paul H. Streit, area medical administrator of the UMW fund, and sent to Richard Todhunter Jr., board president of the hospital in nearby Spangler, stated:

"As long as Sen. Haluska remains in his present position, beneficiaries hospitalized at the expense of the Welfare and Retirement Fund will be cared for elsewhere."

Todhunter declined comment on Dr. Streit's letter. He added:

"I THINK publicity should cease until the board has a chance to act on this controversy. I have asked Dr. W. D. Hall, president of the medical staff, and Sen. Haluska, the administrator, to refrain from hurling any more charges and counter-charges publicly and they have both agreed to do so."

There are about 50 union patients at the 126-bed hospital, Dr. Streit, who retired from the Army last year as a major general in charge of Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, said in the letter:

"His (Sen. Haluska's) bitter accusations against the staff of the hospital and his vicious irresponsible attacks against the medical profession in general have disqualified the senator as an administrator of a hospital dedicated to the scientific cure of disease."

The entire medical staff of the hospital threatens to quit July 15 unless Sen. Haluska (D-Cambria) resigns or is dismissed from his post as administrator.

Corrupt Practice Act Is Invoked Against Firms For 'Joe Must Go' Activities

BARABOO, WIS. (AP)—Dist. Atty. Harlan Kelley of Sauk County reported yesterday he had prepared criminal informations against three Milwaukee firms charging them with contributing to the Joe Must Go Club in violation of the state Corrupt Practices Act.

The Joe Must Go Club of Wisconsin Inc., with headquarters at Sauk City, sought unsuccessfully to obtain the required number of signatures for a recall election for Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Kelley said he would put the informations in the mail today, addressed to the sheriff of Milwaukee County.

HE IDENTIFIED the firms as the Standard Paper Co., the Electric Welding and Engineering Corp., and Charles Meissner and Associates Inc.

Kelley said the firms allegedly violated state law by contributing to the club. He said statutes prohibit domestic corporations from paying or contributing money to any political organization for any political purpose.

The district attorney said the firms would have 20 days in which to answer in Sauk County Circuit Court. He said that in addition to sending the information to the sheriff he would send letters to the companies advising them of the action.

KELLEY SAID he had conferred with the attorney general's office in connection with his previously announced plan to issue "many warrants" in connection with activities of the club founded by

Permanent Vacation Pall Settles Over Coal Mines Area Of Panther Valley

LANSDFORD, PA. (AP)—The pall of a permanent vacation settled yesterday over the coal mining communities of eastern Pennsylvania's Panther Creek Valley.

Hard coal miners and the shopkeepers who supply their daily needs alike were wondering what lay ahead as a result of the closing of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company's anthracite operations.

And none could find much on which to pin a ray of hope for hard coal has been the bread and butter of the valley for generations of miners.

MEMBERS of the Tamaqua local of the United Mine Workers union—whose rebellion against a company production plan led to the shutdown—clung to their faint air of optimism that the coal firm can be persuaded to change its mind.

The local kept on the books a scheduled public mass meeting to be held this Sunday—a meeting called before the Lehigh board of managers voted Thursday to cease its hard coal operations in the valley.

There also was faint hope that Gov. John S. Fine might take some action as it prepares for another advanced training cycle to maintain its combat-ready status.

further action in the situation. Fine, who had asked the company to postpone any decision until the Sunday mass meeting, said yesterday he had no comment at this time.

THERE WAS some talk—rumor at this stage, and nothing more—that UMW President John L. Lewis might toss the Tamaqua local out of union councils and ask the company to go on from there. Lewis would make no comment.

Many of the miners in other Panther Creek Valley UMW locals were openly bitter against the Tamaqua unit because of the mine shutdown and some even talked of trying to persuade Lewis and the company to arrange a reopening at all Lehigh mines other than those in the immediate Tamaqua area.

Yesterday marked the start of the miners' annual vacation with pay—a vacation in this instance with no end in sight and perhaps with no pay.

IN ANNOUNCING its shutdown decision Thursday, the Lehigh board of managers said there was not enough money left in the coffers of its operating subsidiary—the Lehigh Navigation Coal Co. to cover the estimated $400,000 vacation pay of the miners, but added it considered the obligation to make it good a moral one that it would fulfill if at all possible.

The effect of the mine closing was not felt in full measure at once but no one in the valley was unaware of the results to come shortly.

Privacy Right Has No Place In Photo Ban

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Assn. adopted a position yesterday that the right of privacy has no place in a Westmoreland County Court ban against news photographs in the courthouse.

The brief, filed with the State Supreme Court, was made public by Theodore A. Serrill, PNPA general manager, who said:

"We feel that this is an important case and the Supreme Court must take all facts into consideration in making its decision."

The appellate court is now studying an appeal filed by both the PNPA and the Greensburg Tribune and Review newspapers. The case was argued here last month.

ATTORNEYS for the Westmoreland County judges argued that the right of privacy was paramount in the lower court order forbidding photographs of John Wesley Wable convicted of slaying a trucker on the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Wable was tried in February.

The newspapers attacked the photo ban on the general grounds that it deprived them of the constitutional right of freedom of the press.

The new brief, submitted by Charles E. Kenworthy, PNPA counsel, said:

"We earnestly submit the court that the right of an individual to privacy does not interfere with the right of newspapers to photograph newsworthy persons in connection with the reporting of events of public interest."

"ONCE A person becomes the subject of news, whether willingly or unwillingly, his right or privacy must yield to the paramount interest of the public in being fully informed of current events."

Kenworthy cited court decisions from other states and federal courts which he said provide ample precedent for his position.

The attorney also pointed to a recent study by the American Institute of Law which reviewed laws of all the states on the subject and made this statement:

"One who unwillingly comes to the public eye because of his own fault, as in the case of a criminal, is subject to the same limitations upon his right to be let alone."

"COMMUNITY custom achieves the same result with reference to one unjustly charged with crime or the subject of a striking catastrophe."

"Both groups of persons are the objects of legitimate public interest during a period of time after their conduct or misfortune has brought them to the public attention; until they have reverted to the lawful and unexciting life led by the great bulk of the community, they are subject to the privileges which publishers have to satisfy the curiosity of the public as to their leaders, heroes, villains and victims."

Sect. Dulles Opens New Approach In Foreign Relations Which British Will Receive Here

By J. M. Roberts Jr., Associated Press News Analyst

BY SEEKING to put the United States back into the role of friendship for all freedom-seeking people, Secretary Dulles is making the first really new approach to foreign relations attempted by the Eisenhower administration.

Ever since the war the United States had been handicapped in its relations with restive colonial and semi-colonial states by the feeling that it was necessary to compromise the interests of the colonial powers — particularly Britain and France — with the nationalistic urges of Africa, the Middle East and Asia.

No formal statement of policy has been made. But well-founded reports from Washington have that Britain will be firmly informed of a new attitude on this subject during the current conferences.

THIS WOULD MEAN a direct American-type approach to such problems as the Middle East. This will probably mean that experience in maintaining the defense of such points as the Suez Canal will go by the boards in favor of national self-determination for the smaller countries, after which expediency will once more be broached to them as a matter not of colonialism, but of their own national interests.

Indochina has proved definitely that colonial-type defense without the full cooperation of a country's nationals cannot be maintained successfully in this day and age.

Britain got out of India and then, lo and behold, what happened? She became stronger in India than ever, her interests there on a far better foundation.

IN TAKING UP a definite role as mediator for the complete freedom of remote-controlled areas, the United States, although she might not do it deliberately, would be bidding for leadership of a cohesive, willingly cooperating bloc of small nations which hold key positions in the worldwide defense line against Russian expansion.

It would have been virtually impossible to follow such a policy in the early years of the cold war.

Anything which tended to tear down the power or prestige of France and Britain in those days would have threatened the position of America herself.

BUT FRANCE AND Britain are far stronger now, and might be even stronger still if they could get rid of their colonial entanglements by a process which was not too damaging to their business interests. India is the best example that such disentanglement is possible when approached in the proper spirit by both sides.

Dulles is a strong advocate of the theory that lasting world settlements can be based only on what is right, rather than on agreements of expediency.

Sometimes what is right is too inexpedient. But if a start can be made along these lines, the war for the minds of men can be won, and Russia will be denied the hope of eventual mobilization of two-thirds of the world against the Western powers.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Outside of a major power failure, I don't know of anything that disrupts things more than the failure of a press. Somehow nobody can settle down to their regular work, but have to go out every few minutes to see whether the paper has come yet.

It may be that most mornings they do no more than look at the headlines, saving the leisurely reading until night-time. But the fact that you don't know who died or who had an accident or who got married or had a baby is a nagging thing when there's no paper at all.

It was a waiting kind of a day, anyway. Waiting for the paper in the morning. Waiting in line for groceries. Waiting at stoplights for traffic. But most of all, waiting for the Scout bus to arrive. The last call was from York about 3 p.m., when the forecast was for arrival between 8:30 and 9.

Surely the clock never moved so slowly. You could spend a little time speculating on the statistics Mrs. DePue quoted at the meeting the other night: that there were more people over 65 in the Stroudsburgs than in any other place in Pennsylvania.

Seems logical when it appears to take an hour for five minutes to pass. You could recall with a start that tomorrow was the

Co. Nursing Needs Are Discussed

The final meeting of the season of the Women's Auxiliary of the East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church was held on Wednesday in the social rooms of the church.

Mrs. Elwood Grant, program chairman introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Edward DePuy, executive director of Monroe Co. Organization Public Health Nursing. This organization which is a member of the National League for Nursing, is also a recognized agency incorporated in the state and one of the nine agencies of the Red Feather Community Chest.

Mrs. DePuy presented a talk on all the phases of public health nursing in Monroe Co. The name Public Health Nursing was adopted July 1950 and means the same as visiting nurse, she said.

Mrs. DePuy, dressed in the regular summer blue and white seersucker uniform, described in detail all the duties of the nursing staff, which consists of three phases—bedside care, teaching and demonstrations, and prevention. These services are rendered to all ages and types of illnesses in all the townships of Monroe County, she said.

Displaying their bag and its contents, Mrs. DePuy told that most of their visits were to elderly patients who remain at home, because of the lack of nursing homes in this area. Statistics say there are more people over 65 years of age who live in the Stroudsburgs than any other place in Pennsylvania, she said.

The Public Health Nursing headquarters are located at the General Hospital which affords easy conference with the doctors.

In each field the Public Health Nurse gives service to all ages and people. Bedside care entails giving bed baths, and medical care if ordered by physician. Teaching and demonstrating technical methods of administration are given to members of the family who must care for patients.

Prevention, the largest field, starts with prenatal care by visits to the home; care of the new born with conducted classes in infant care at the hospital and then the child is followed thru pre-school age.

Giving the history of some interesting local cases, both medical and mentally ill patients, the accomplishments of the miracle drugs and praise to the work accomplished by the local women's organizations in the making of cancer dressings and other articles for their use, Mrs. DePuy closed by dwelling upon the future plans for their organization.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Jesse Flory, who also presented facts on both the national and foreign mission programs: the need for miracle drugs at the Grand Community House in New Mexico and other Spanish American Hospitals and for better housing units in Africa. This was the challenge to meet for the summer quota, Mrs. Flory said.

Mrs. Horace G. Walters, president, presided at the business session and presented a report of the 166th General Assembly Quadrennial meeting at Purdue University, where a new attendance record was set with 9,768 delegates from 46 states, the West Indies and Alaska attended. One of the outstanding actions voted upon was the Action On Union, with its two sister communions, The Presbyterian Church U.S. and The United Presbyterian Church to form the Presbyterian Church of the United States.

Mrs. Paul Dellaria, sec. for national mission and overseas hospital sewing, reported that all requirements were completed for the year and all boxes were sent to their designated places.

Mrs. Milo Singer, assistant sewing project chairman gave a detailed report. Some of the highlights were: 6 quilts, 108 dozen dresses and pads for American Cancer Society, 8 dresses for Monroe County Children's Clothing Club, 2 cartons of clothing to Salvation Army, 41 lbs. clothing to New Windsor, Md. Church World Service Depot, 17 lbs. clothing to Xanthie, Greece. For the local church, they made containers for the church silverware, arranged by Mrs. Emma Schoonover and Mrs. W. E. Bruce.

The Auxiliary voted to give $75 to complete the landscape planting project in front of the church; a $25 donation to Brainerd Center; and a gift box of cards with

DPA Medical Pay Test In Potter Co.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Potter county will become the second county in the commonwealth to adopt an experimental medical aid payment plan under which public assistance recipients receive extra monthly payments for doctor's bills.

The plan in use at Snyder County for nearly a year will be inaugurated in Potter County on Aug. 1, said F. W. Gunzburger, executive director of the Potter County Board of Assistance.

The plan has been termed an "unqualified success" by Luther Roskay, Snyder County executive director, and will be continued for another year following July 1.

POTTER COUNTY will try it for six months, paying relief recipients $1.50 extra per month, instead of having the Department of Public Assistance pay medical bills for persons on relief directly to the physicians. Persons under 16 years will receive only $1 per month extra.

Snyder County has been paying all its recipients only $1 extra per month, with $5 going to those chronically ill and needing continued medical attention. Potter County will pay $7 extra to such persons.

The aim of the plan is to reduce overall expenses if possible and to give the public assistance recipients a feeling of "independence."

"WE BELIEVE the program is a step in the right direction," Gunzburger told a newsman. "Our policy is to let people handle their own affairs and make them more independent."

He said the chief objection to the plan has been voiced by people who thought the relief recipients would not put aside their allowance to care for medical expenses.

"But that can be true of the grocer's bills also," he said. "We have found very few incidents where the grocer or the rent or gas bill has not been paid."

Frantz Reunion Tomorrow

The people of the United States had 26 per cent of the income of the world in 1938 and 40.7 per cent in 1948, says the Twentieth Century Fund.

Barrett Blanks Ronson On Motts' One-Hit Pitching Chore

Besecker Snaps No-Hit Bid In Fourth

Carl Motts protected Barrett's perfect record in the Babe Ruth League of the Stroudsburgs with a brilliant one-hit pitching job at Gordon Giffels field last night, as Barrett walked off with a 17-0 baseball decision over Ronson.

Motts, basketball and baseball star at Barrett High school, had the host Ronson club eating out of his hand last night and missed a no-hitter in the fourth inning when Tom Besecker, Tannersville, lined a single over the shortstop's head into left field.

The Barrett hurler had retired 10 straight batters before Besecker broke up the no-hit bid.

Meanwhile Barrett was scoring almost at will, picking up four runs in the first, three in the third, three more in the fourth and seven tallies in the seventh and final stanza.

Motts struck a big blow in his own behalf when he batted a home run in to center field in the first inning, with two mates on base.

The Barrett pitcher registered 16 strikeouts and gave up only two free tickets to first base.

Barrett did all of its damage on 16 hits.

The league leading club has now won all four of its outings today, while Ronson owns a mark of two wins and three setbacks.

Find Enters Edgemere Run

New York (AP)—Alfred Vanderbilt's Find will skip the $25,000-added Edgemere Handicap at Aqueduct today, setting up a wide open battle between nine others in the mile and one-eighth event for older horses.

The Saxon Stable's Invigorator must pack high weight of 117 pounds, and is the probable favorite because of his second place finish to Find in the Queens County Handicap at Aqueduct June 14.

Jockey Eric Guerin, who brought Find up in the stretch to defeat Invigorator by three-quarters of a length in the Queens County, will be aboard the Saxon Stable 4-year-old this time.

Close

However, under the spread of weights, the Edgemere should be a closely fought duel with any of the nine capable of taking down the first money. The race will be televised nationally (CBS) 4-4:30 p.m. (EDT), and broadcast (ABC) 4:15-4:30 p.m. (EDT).

The Brookmeade Stable's County Glare and the Cain Hay Stable's One-eyed Armageddon, both with 109 pounds; Ogden Phipps' Basanto with 110; and W. Haggins Perry's Domquil with 113 seem to have the most chance if Invigorator fails.

Others are Joe W. Brown's Matagorda, 109; Mrs. H. P. Christiansen's Mending, 109; The Killiam Farm's Resilient, 106; and the Saxon Stable's Flaunt, 104.

Air Force Academy Launches Football Slate

Colorado Springs, Colo. (AP)—Lt. Col. Robert Y. Whitlow, appointed athletic director of the new Air Force academy here by special Pentagon directive Thursday announced yesterday the football program at the service school will start with a freshman team in 1955 and build from there.

Foes

Whitlow, who played tackle for the West Point grid team in the early 40s, said the schedule would start with "any school around here which will play us. We don't expect to play killer schedules, but they'll be respectable."

"From there we hope to build up our program to the level of the sports programs at West Point and Annapolis," Whitlow continued. But he emphasized the program would depend on the "type of boys we attract."

Hahn Displays Trick Shots At Glen Brook

Paul Hahn, colorful golf pro from Ellinor Village Country Club, Omond Beach, Fla., entertained approximately 100 people with an outstanding display of trick golf shots at Glen Brook Country Club last night.

Hahn, mixing a high brand of humor with his brilliant ability with a golf club, held court on the third hole and kept the crowd spell-bound throughout his hour-long program.

The visiting pro opened with a serious golf clinic, actually giving a golf lesson in four parts.

Humor

He followed with an outstanding display of trick shots, driving balls from extra large tees, with unofficial clubs and in general fully entertaining the crowd.

Hahn wound up the clinic with his famous "William Tell" shot, driving a ball from a tee held in the mouth of one of his staff.

He did a multitude of trick shots that were all well received by the crowd.

Movies in the club house wound up the program.

Jones Tops In Fielding

New York (AP)—Willie Jones of the Philadelphia Phils, the National League fielding leader at third base in 1953, has picked up where he left off defensively last season. Jones currently tops the third basemen with a .982 fielding average, after setting the pace a year ago with a .975 mark.

The 28-year-old third baseman has handled 219 chances while committing only four errors. Jones, in his sixth season with the Phils, can threaten the National League fielding mark for third basemen if he continues his defensive gait. The highest percentage is .983, set in 1924 by Heinie Groh of the Giants.

Yost Leads

Figures compiled by the Associated Press through Thursday's games also disclose that in the American League Eddie Yost of the Washington Senators heads the third basemen with a .968 average. Yost, playing his eighth season with the Nats, never has led at his position.

The 27-year-old Yost has accepted 250 chances, making eight errors. He finished second among American League third basemen last season with a .965 mark. His lifetime average is .958.

Bobby Adams of the Cincinnati Redlegs is runner-up to Jones for National League honors at .970. Adams has made five errors in handling 167 chances.

Don Hoak of the Dodgers ranks third. The Brooklyn rookie, with three errors in 94 chances, boasts a .968 fielding mark.

Another freshman, Rudy Regalado of the Cleveland Indians, is challenging Yost for American League defensive supremacy. Regalado is fielding .963, having committed five miscues in 136 chances.

Veteran Vern Stephens of the Baltimore Orioles is third with a .962 fielding average. Stephens, a shortstop most of his major league career, has erred six times in 156 chances.

Bassett Awarded TKO Verdict Over Perez After 11th Round

By Jack Hand

New York (AP)—Percy Bassett, a tireless three to 'one underdog, opened a gash over Lulu Perez left eye and dropped him for an automatic eight count to score a technical knockout at the end of the 11th round last night in a featherweight elimination bout at Madison Square Garden. Perez weighed 125½, Bassett 126½.

Although it was difficult to see just how the act opened in the eighth round, it looked as though Bassett's head butted Perez as they eluded near Lulu's corner.

After taking a bad beating in the 11th round in which he was knocked through the ropes to a sitting position by a series of left hooks, Perez told Dr. Vincent Nardiello he was not able to come out for the final round of their scheduled 12-round match. Under New York rules it was an 11th round TKO.

All three officials had Bassett out front.

Judges Bert Grant and Frank Forbes scored it 8-3 in favor of Bassett and Referee Al Bert, 7-3-1. The AP card was 9-2 for Bassett.

It simply was a case of too much fighter for the fancy New York youngster who never had been stopped in compiling a 36-2 record in 38 previous pro bouts.

Bassett is supposed to get a title shot at feather champ Sandy Saddler as a reward for this convincing victory. The 26-year-old Philadelphia Negro was the "interim champ" while Sandy was in the Army.

Both boys drew warnings from Referee Bert, Bassett for low blows in the fifth and sixth and Perez for holding Bassett's left hand with his own right while in the clinches.

Calhoun Upsets Golf Partner

Houston, Tex. (AP)—Cecil Calhoun, a 19 year old sophomore, upset his Louisiana State teammate, the veteran Eddie Morris, yesterday to enter the finals of the National Collegiate Golf tournament against Hillman Robbins, the Southern Intercollegiate champion from Memphis State.

Rally

Calhoun, two down at the turn, rallied on the back nine to score a one-up victory over Morris, the tournament's 1952 runner-up.

New Time Set For Softball

All Monroe County Softball League games played at Stroudsburg Playground in the future will begin at 6:30 p.m., it was announced last night by Jack Mullins circuit president.

No Later

Games will begin no later than 6:45 p.m. Gordon Giffels field action will begin immediately following the Stroudsburg Playground game.

Orioles Cool

Red Hot A's, 5-1

Baltimore (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles last night hung a 5-1 defeat on the Philadelphia Athletics, who moved into town with nine victories in their last 12 starts, as Duane Pillette hurled six-hit ball and the Bird batting order cheered 10,160 fans with a 13-hit attack.

Yankees Crush Indians Behind Reynolds, 11-0

Cleveland (AP)—Allie Reynolds shut out the Cleveland Indians on nine well-spaced hits last night, and his New York Yankee teammates packed most of their scoring punch in a seven-run third inning to whip the Tribe by an 11-0 score that dismayed the largest crowd of the season here, 49,808.

It was the ninth victory in a row for the Yankees' 36-year-old ace right-hander whose only loss was in his first time out this year. And it brought the world champions to within three games of the first-place Indians.

Big Guns

The Yankees smashed out 14 hits against Mike Garcia and four relief pitchers who followed him. Joe Collins and Gene Woodling drove in four and three runs, respectively, Collins accounting for two of his with his fifth homer of the season in the eighth after Gil McDougald walked.

Garcia, going down to his fifth defeat against nine victories, had given up only two earned runs in a string of 48 innings when the Yankees sent him to the showers in the third with their seven-run outburst.

Ghosts Are Voting Now

Lake Charles, La. (AP)—Tabulators in the local balloting for major league all-stars are puzzling over this one.

Ballots

They received a letter containing 15 ballots, each marked for Alvin Dark, New York Giants shortstop and a native of Lake Charles.

The return address on the envelope read "Memorial Park Cemetery."

Williams' Homer Fails Red Sox

Chicago (AP)—Bob Keegan, the American League's winningest pitcher, survived a pinch two-run homer by Ted Williams last night and boosted the Chicago White Sox to within one game of first place with an eight-hit 6-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Bauer Sisters Slated

Phillipsburg, N. J. (AP)—The famous golfing Bauer Sisters will appear at Harkers Hollow Golf Club, in a benefit golf clinic and exhibition on Monday July 5.

Runs

The Cubs picked up single runs in the third and fourth, while the Chiefs, who accounted for seven hits, scored both of their markers in the sixth.

Bob Lupcho pitched the entire distance for Newfoundland, while Bill Gumble, who went three-for-three at the plate, pitched all the way for the Chiefs.

Both teams committed two errors.

Braves Defeat Phillies, 7-0

Philadelphia (AP)—Low Budette doled out five hits tonight as the Milwaukee Braves took over third place in the National League by whipping the Philadelphia Phillies 7-0.

Spark Attack

Bill Bruton sparked the Braves' attack by scoring two runs and banging home three more. Ed Mathews added another with his 13th homer.

THE LONGEST MYSTERY in the history of sports has finally been solved—Leroy (Satchel) Page, the aged and ageless Negro pitcher, is really 47 years old. The above verification of birth record obtained by Ralph B. Chandler, publisher of the Mobile, Ala., Press-Register, shows Satch was born there July 7, 1906.

Mays Homers As Giants Keep Winning Habit Against Cubs

New York (AP)—Willie Mays hit his sixth home run in his last five games—this one inside the park—and the New York Giants went on to whip the Chicago Cubs 6-2 last night, continuing their one-game lead over Brooklyn in the National League.

Mays' blast, his 24th of the season, was a 45-foot drive deep off the left field fence and he circled the bases behind "Hank" Thompson while the Cub outfielders chased the ball.

Jim Hearn marked up his fifth straight victory although he left after seven innings because of the intense heat. Marv Grissom finished, allowing one hit in the final two innings. The Cubs got six altogether.

Thompson led the 11-hit New York attack with two doubles and a punt that went for a single.

Mays leads both leagues in home runs. He's one ahead of Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals who hit his 23rd last night.

Redlegs Down Pirates On Two Circuit Blows By Kluszewski

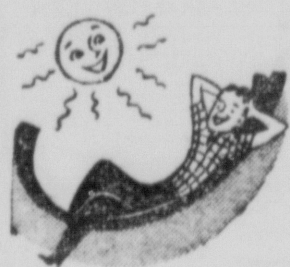

Pittsburgh (AP)—Big Ted Kluszewski hit his 18th and 19th homers of the season last night to drive in four runs and lead the Cincinnati Redlegs to an 8-4 victory over the six victories, was charged to Max Surkont who was touched for both of Big Klu's homers. Surkont went to the showers after giving up seven hits in six innings.

Art Fowler received credit for his sixth win against three defeats although he was taken out in the sixth, being replaced by Frank Smith.

Paul Hahn put on a very good golf show at Glen Brook Country Club last evening, entertaining a crowd of some 100 people with his clinic, trick shots and running line of humor. It was almost disturbing to see one man do so many things with a golf club and ball and do them all almost perfectly. The guy has plenty of talent and a manner which sells him to the audience immediately. Paul's golf bag is as big as a dog house and had as much stuff in it as a lady's purse.

Hahn and Harry Obitz, head pro at Shawnee, are close friends and formerly worked together. The next big project at Glen Brook is the second annual Pro-Amateur tournament slated for Tuesday, July 6. The first tournament of its kind held at the local course last summer proved to be a huge success. Tony Midiri, head pro, and August "Augie" Lackwitz, chairman of the golf committee, are currently hard at work on tournament plans.

Charley Winters, assistant football and basketball coach at Stroudsburg High, left town on Friday for his summer position as life guard in Williamsport. Charley will be back in town in time for the opening of school next September. Stan Dudas, assistant golf pro at Shawnee Inn and Country Club, earned $125 by tying for third place in the recent Pennsylvania Open tournament in Hershey. Harry Werkheiser, basketball and baseball coach at Pocono High school, is scheduled to return from a trip to Michigan this weekend.

Chair Bloss is rapidly acquiring golf skill and "soon will be as talented a performer on the fairways as he is in center field for Tannersville, an entry in the Pocono Mountains League. George Metro-poulos, assistant football and baseball mentor at Stroudsburg High, is taking a summer course at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Del Davis, assistant football coach at East Stroudsburg High, is employed on the Delaware Water Gap bridge for the summer months.

Gene Martin, head football coach and dean of men at ESSTC, reported that many favorable comments were heard in the Normal Hill dormitories concerning the 11th annual Eastern Pennsylvania Scholastic Coaches Association which came to an end on Thursday. Martin passed on the information that virtually everyone of the visiting student coaches said they would return again next summer if another coaching clinic is held in this locality.

One of George Condrick's latest pitching victories for Houston, of the class "AA" Texas League, was a 5-2 affair over Oklahoma City. George, former member of the Stroudsburg Poconos and now a winter resident of Tannersville, gave up six hits, retired two batters on strikes and walked a pair. The big right hander also lashed out a single in four trips to the plate, scored one run, made one putout and was credited with three assists. Condrick tossed a one-hitter earlier in the present campaign.

Mike Coma, Danmore resident who was a teammate of Condrick's on the Poconos for two seasons, is now home and playing with a semi-pro club in the Scranton area. Coma was the property of the Cleveland Indians before arm trouble hampered his pitching ability. Bill Long, former second baseman with the Poconos and manager of the Bangor-Berwick franchise, is also playing semi-pro ball in the anthracite region.

Angelo "Wimpy" Nardello, right-handed pitcher who received his start in pro baseball with Nazareth, of the now defunct North Atlantic League, is going great guns with Richmond, of the International League, at the present time. Nardello was declared the winner in seven of his first eight decisions with one of the two newest clubs in the "AAA" circuit. Nardello went to spring training with the A's a couple of seasons back.

Harry Schaeffer, another former hurler with the Poconos, was knocked from the mound in the seventh inning last week by Indianapolis, but wasn't charged with an 11-4 defeat charged against Toledo, of the American Association. Harry, who has a record of two wins and no defeats since joining Toledo, retired six on strikes, walked two and gave up eight hits in six and two-thirds innings.

Varsity 'E' Club To Hold Important Meeting Tuesday

Plans For Light Show To Be Discussed

One of the most important meetings in the history of the Varsity "E" Club will take place at East Stroudsburg High school on Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. This is the meeting at which the August date for Tom Waring's "Memorial Stadium Light Fund" show will be set.

Reg Nauman, president of the group, requests that every member of the club be present at several topics of business concerning the fund raising show must be settled at this time. Nauman reported that it is absolutely necessary that all officers of the organization be on hand.

Waring, director of the show, Harry Obitz, head golf pro at Shawnee, and Mike Devitt, publicity director for Shawnee, will attend the gathering.

The three well known individuals from Shawnee will discuss the show, some of the talent already procured and plans they have been working on for the past two or three weeks.

Details

Every preliminary detail will be discussed, such as sale of tickets, prices, date, time and many other problems.

The show, to be built around the famed "The Swing of The Thing" golf show, headed by Obitz, is the key function in a drive to raise $18,000. The money in turn will be used to install a permanent lighting system at Memorial Stadium.

A permanent lighting system can be used for football, baseball, softball, track, plays, outdoor band concerts and graduation exercises. The system is being purchased to benefit both the athlete and non-athlete student at East Stroudsburg High.

A large turnout is desired at Tuesday's meeting so that various duties can be assigned for the coming show.

Three New Leaders Listed

Chicago (AP) — Three new National League leaders were recorded yesterday in the balloting for the All-Star baseball game at Cleveland July 13.

Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson wrested the number one leftfield berth from Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs; Ray Jablonski of the St. Louis Cardinals dislodged the Cubs' Randy Jackson at third base; and Alvin Dark of the New York Giants replaced Brooklyn's "Pee Wee" Reese as the top shortstop.

Totals

Robinson, veteran of five All-Star games, has compiled 133,742 votes against Kiner's 148,311. Jablonski leads Jackson, 154,788 to 151,202. Dark's total is 151,894, while Reese has 148,263.

In total votes, the poll which closes next Saturday is headed by Stan Musial, Cardinal rightfielder, with 166,458. Catcher "Yogi" Berra of the Yankees took over second place with 164,889, while leftfielder "Minnie" Minoso of the White Sox dropped to third with 163,516.

Dodgers Top Cardinals, 3-1

Brooklyn (AP) — Carl Erskine of the Brooklyn Dodgers pitched his 11th victory in 12 Ebbets Field starts against the St. Louis Cardinals last night as he set down the Red Birds 3-1 on six hits.

The only St. Louis run was a first inning homer by Stan Musial, his 23rd.

Fans Five

Erskine, who hasn't lost to the Cards in his home park since 1950, struck out five and didn't walk a man.

The Dodgers pinned the third loss on Vic Raschi, former New York Yankee star. Roy Campanella singled home two runs in the first inning and the third tally scored in the second inning on singles by Carl Furillo and "Junior" Gilliam and a sacrifice fly by "Pee Wee" Reese.

St. Louis — 100 000 000-1 6 0

Phillies Sign College Stars

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies signed two college baseball stars from Michigan and Ohio yesterday at their annual tryout camp in Ann Arbor.

Names

Eddie Krajcik, chief Midwestern scout for the Phillies, said both men would report to minor league clubs. They are first baseman Dick Gellash, 19, of Roseville, Mich., and Olin Smith of Cridersville, Ohio.

Moore Signs To Risk Light Heavyweight Title Against Johnson In Madison Square Garden

New York (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and top contender Harold Johnson of Philadelphia yesterday signed for a 15-round title fight at Madison Square Garden, August 11, and this time it looks like the fight will be held.

A few months ago it was announced they would have it out in San Francisco, July 14, but the 38-year-old Moore backed out because he was carrying too much beef. He weighed 189½ on June 7 when he stopped heavyweight Bert Whitehurst in six rounds at the St. Nicholas Arena.

He'll have to make the 175-pound limit for Johnson.

President Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club said the 15-rounder will be telecast coast to coast by CBS with the New York area blacked out. The TV price is reported to be $50,000. Moore will collect 40 per cent of the net gate and TV money while Johnson will get 20 per cent of both.

All in all it looks like a busy season for the champions.

Between now and October there may be title fights in every one of the eight weight divisions except the flyweights.

Colonial Diner Nips Peoples Coal In Little League Battle

Colonial Diner withstood a strong finish by Peoples Coal last night to gain an 11-10 victory in a Stroudsburg Little League baseball game played on the circuit's official field.

The winning contingent did all of its damage in three innings, picking up a pair of counters in the second and then hitting the heights for four markers in the fourth inning and five in the fifth. Peoples Coal held a 5-2 advantage after the second inning and

Pocono A.C. To Invade Martins Creek

Frank Radler, veteran pitcher of professional experience, is expected to do the pitching for Pocono A. C. tomorrow when the charges of Manager Bill Frear tangle with Martins Creek, on the latter's home field.

The contest is slated to get underway at 2:30 p.m.

Radler will be called upon to face one of the toughest clubs in the circuit, as Martins Creek is currently tied for first place in the standings with Tatamy. Martins Creek and Tatamy are only one-half game in front of third place Portland.

Lineup

Russ Staples will do the catching for Radler, while Randy Morris handles the first base duties; Paul "Doc" Lim, second base; Frear, shortstop; Art Schaare, third base; Fred "Satch" Gahres, left field; Bob Smith or Al Adelmann, center field, and Dave Nevil, right field. Pocono A. C. is currently holding down sixth place in the standings, one game in back of fifth place Stockertown.

Other games in the circuit today will send Bath against Johnsonville, on the latter's home field, while Stockertown plays at Portland and Tatamy battles Roseto on the latter's home ground.

In each case action gets underway at 2:30 p.m.

Sarazen Picks Littler To Star

New York (AP) — Gene Sarazen, whose brilliant golf career has spanned four continents and as many eras in the last 30 years, predicted yesterday that 23-year-old Gene Littler would erase the gaudy records of Bobby Jones and Ben Hogan.

"If I'm lucky enough to live 17 more years—until Littler is 40," the youthful-looking, 52-year-old Germantown, N. Y., squire added, "I am sure I will see this young man hang up an array of championships surpassing anything Jones and Hogan ever did."

"In every department, I consider him the finest golf prospect I ever saw."

Littler, 1953 national amateur champion from San Diego, Calif., was runner-up to Ed Furgol in the recent National Open at Baltusrol.

Senators Nip Tigers, 4-3

Detroit (AP) — Pete Runnels knocked in two runs with a double and triple as Washington edged Detroit 4-3 last night.

Streak

The win cracked a three-game losing streak and moved the Senators to within one game of the fourth-place Tigers.

Mountains Loop Opens Second Half

Pocono Lake, one game out in front of the remainder of the Pocono Mountains Baseball League, becomes the target of the rest of the park as the second half of the campaign opens tomorrow.

All action is scheduled to get underway at 2 p.m.

Pocono Lake will place its record of seven wins and two defeats on the line tomorrow against a strong Kunkletown club that has found the going tough of late. The contest will be played on the Kunkletown field.

Kunkletown is currently tied for second place with Readers and Arlinton.

Strong Rivals

Readers will attempt to stay in the flag race against a truly strong Saylorburg contingent that is still very much in the pennant dash. Saylorburg will have the advantage of playing on its home grounds.

Anatolink is slated to play host to Bushkill, a club that is tied with West End A. C. for the number eight and nine spots in the standings. The game will be played on the Readers field.

West End is slated to invade the home field of Barrett tomorrow. Barrett is one of those clubs that appear strong on paper but have a tough time getting underway. The Barrett nine is currently in last place, six games off the pace. Lake Harmony, tied with Saylorburg for fourth place, will be out to gain a measure of revenge against Tannersville, on the latter's home grounds at Pocono High school. Tannersville took the measure of Lake Harmony during the first half of the campaign.

Tannersville is resting on top of the second division at the present time.

Hasty Road Faces Field

Chicago (AP) — Hasty Road, the Preankness winner, will race a dozen other three-year-olds today in the $25,000 added Warren Wright Memorial Stakes at Arlington Park, scene of his scintillating success as a two-year-old.

It was mainly on his triumphs in the Arlington and Washington Park Futurities last year that Hasty Road became the world's all-time money winning two-year-old with a $277,132 total in 1953.

Battle

The Warren Wright sprint over seven furlongs is expected to be a battle between Hasty Road and Walmac Farm's Hasseyampa, who finished third behind runner-up Hasty Road in the Kentucky Derby.

The race is something of a tune-up for the $155,000 Arlington Classic July 17 in which Kentucky Derby champion Determine, Belmont champion High Gun and Hasty Road will vie in a high-caliber showdown for three-year-old laurels.

Millersville Names Coach

Lancaster (AP) — George A. Katchmer, head coach in three sports at Newport Joint High School, Perry County, yesterday was named head football and baseball coach at Millersville State Teachers College.

Katchmer succeeds Bernie Santaniello who resigned last January, but who will remain as line coach.

Bishop was also baseball coach at Millersville.

A native of Cherry Tree, Katchmer is a 1940 graduate of Lebanon Valley College.

Rain Halts Wimbledon Tennis

Wimbledon, England (AP) — An all-day drizzle forced Wimbledon officials to call off play yesterday in the All-England Lawn Tennis Championships.

The authorities had all of the courts in this sprawling tennis plant covered yesterday morning in the hopes of getting some matches played, but the rain continued and officials reluctantly announced the postponement at 5:30 p. m.

Changes

Today's program will probably include all the postponed matches with some extra ones sandwiched in.

Extra matches will be played Monday to bring the heavy program up to date again.

Landy Wins Two-Mile

Pori, Finland (AP) — John Landy, Melbourne's marvelous miler, won a two-mile race yesterday by 125 yards in the excellent time of 8:42.4, only two seconds behind Gaston Reiff's world record.

Ottawa Slaps Easter With Heavy Fine

Ottawa (AP) — Luke Easter, who was suspended indefinitely without pay from the Ottawa Athletics Thursday night, has been reinstated and fined $100.

George Macdonald, general manager of the International baseball league club, announced Easter's suspension Thursday night after Luke had a run-in with Les Bell, the Athletics' field manager.

Blast

Bell gave Easter a blast for his poor showing in a cut-off play while the A's were dropping a 3-2, 13-inning decision to Havana Sugar Kings.

The former Cleveland Indians first baseman grabbed Bell. Other players in the dugout broke up the pair before any damage occurred and Bell ordered Easter from the game.

Tobyhanna will attempt to stretch its winning streak to three games in the Pocono Mountains Association tomorrow, when the charges of Manager Frank "Candy" Dailey invade the home field of Moscow.

The game is slated to get underway at 2 p.m.

Pro Bears File Suit Against Canadian Team

Chicago (AP)—The Chicago Bears announced yesterday filing of a $150,000 damage suit against the Hamilton Tiger-Cat team of the Canadian Professional Football League for signing Bear player Jim Dempsey.

Dempsey, himself, was sued for $25,000 for breach of contract. The damage suit, filed in Federal Court at Miami, Fla., also was directed against Hamilton's head coach, Carl M. Voyles.

It charges that Hamilton and Voyles "willfully and maliciously" induced Dempsey, veteran line-backer, to jump his Bear contract and sign with the Canadian team.

Further Claim
The Bears also claimed the defendants sought to further raid the Chicago squad by attempting to get other Bears to breach their 1954 contracts.

The Bears said no effort would be made to enjoin Dempsey, a resident of Miami and U. of Florida football product, from playing in Canada. Dempsey joined the Bears in 1950.

It was the second suit filed against a Canadian club by the Bears.

Bolt Blasts Par Wide Open To Gain Lead After Pen Argyl Two Rounds Of Insurance City Open Tourney

Wethersfield, Conn. (AP)—Tommy Bolt, colorful Houston, Texan shot a spectacular 11-under par 60 yesterday, equalling the National Professional Golfers Association competitive record, and zoomed in front with a two round total of 131 as the $15,000 Insurance City Open reached the halfway mark.

Only four other pros playing in PGA tournaments have posted a 60 round—Bill Nary, Reno, Nevada; Al Brosch, Cherry Valley, N. Y.; Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., and Wally Ulrich, Austin, Minn.

Pocono Rifle, Pistol Club Holds Match For 42 Members

Pocono Lake—The Pocono Rifle and Pistol Club, chartered by the National Rifle Association, held an inter-club match on its outdoor range located at The Mohican, recently. The match featured an inter-team 22 calibre rifle, 100-yard competition, participated in by 14 members. High scorer for this match was Russell Miller, Pocono Pines. Running a close second was Glenmore Hayes, Blakeslee.

The rifle event was highlighted by a one-shot deer hunt, participated in by all members. The target was a life-size replica which was given realistic motion by the men in the pit, to simulate a bounding animal. This event was won by a heart shot fired by Russell Durland, Pocono Lake.

Pistols
An open pistol match was held in which the members fired rapid-fire at a life-size silhouette of a man and slow-fire at standard bull's eyes. This event was won by William Wildrick, Pocono Lake. Second place went to Russell Miller.

At the winter roast following the match, the prizes for each of the events were awarded. At the short business session Nelson Miller, Pocono Lake, secretary, presided in the absence of President Roger Miller, Pocono Pines. Membership report was given, showing 42 members.

A discussion was held regarding the new indoor range, which will be equipped for night shooting. The secretary demitted those present that the membership list was still open to anyone interested in joining the group and stressed the fact that proficiency in shooting was not a prerequisite to membership. Anyone wishing to improve their marksmanship or even to learn to shoot is invited to apply for membership.

Capers Wins Golf Crown
Pittsburgh (AP)—Mrs. John G. Capers of the Merion Golf Club, Philadelphia, won the Pennsylvania women's golf championship yesterday by coming from behind to defeat Mrs. Herman Worsham of nearby Youghiogheny Country Club.

Mrs. Capers finished one up on her opponent in the 36-hole final played at Oakmont Country Club. She had been three down at the finish.

First Time
It was the first time Mrs. Capers won the title although she had advanced to the finals on three previous occasions.

Both Mrs. Capers and Mrs. Worsham were above the women's par of 75. Mrs. Capers shot an 81-84-168, and Mrs. Worsham fired an 81-86-167.

Mathias Enters Marines
Hollywood (AP)—Bob Mathias, twice winner of the Olympic games decathlon crown, left yesterday for Quantico, Va., to begin a two-year stretch in the Marine Corps.

Odds Favor Yankees, Giants
Las Vegas, Nev. (AP)—Odds makers in this desert gambling resort are betting there will be a "subway series" between the New York Yankees and the Giants in the World Series.

Prices available yesterday place both New York clubs on top of their respective leagues—the Giants 7-5 to win the National and the Yankees even money, the latter despite their third place standing.

Unchanged
Brooklyn remains a 10-7 bet to win in the senior loop, a figure unchanged since prices were posted at the start of the season. At that time the Giants were no better than 5-1.

The Cleveland Indians, now on top in the American loop, were priced at 5-2. When the campaign started, the Yankees and the Chicago White Sox were quoted at 2-3 and $10 would get you $11 on Cleveland. The second place White Sox are now 3-1.

Steady-minded Scorpio people. Aspects more suspicious than you may at first suppose. If you try hard enough you can achieve.

Doug Ford, Kiamnesia Lake, N. Y., 70-67 and John Palmer, Charlotte, N. C., 69-68 were next with 137's.

Durocher, Grimm To Coach National

Cincinnati (AP)—Leo Durocher, manager of the New York Giants, and Charley Grimm, manager of the Milwaukee Braves, will coach the National League team which will meet the American League club in the All-Star game in Cleveland on July 13.

The announcement was made yesterday by Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, at the request of Walter Alston, of Brooklyn, who will manage the senior major league club.

Request
Alston, serving his first year as a National League manager, asked Giles to recommend two men for the coaching jobs, and to announce their selections after he approved them.

Giles selected the two senior managers of the National League. Durocher is in his 15th year, and "Uncle Charley" is in his 12th season. He said both managers had accepted the coaching positions.

Five Interests
As the lineup stands now, there will be five interests represented by the seven horses entered in the mile and one sixteenth race. But three of the eligibles, the King Ranch's Rejected and High Seed, and Mrs. Edward Lasker's By Zeus, will race as a betting entry because all are trained by "Buddy" Hirsch.

Other entries are Laughin Louie, owned by Betty Grable and Harry James; Al Hirschberg's Berseem, Calumet Farm's Fleet Bird and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Goeman's Curragh King.

Polio Fails To Develop In Salk Cases

HARRISBURG (AP)—Infantile paralysis has failed to develop yet among 4,600 children inoculated with the Salk polio vaccine even though the number of reported cases so far this year is far greater than in 1953.

However, it is "much too soon" to determine the effectiveness of the vaccine, cautioned Dr. Russell E. Teague, state health secretary. "The incidence of polio in Pennsylvania is usually at its highest in late August and early September," Teague said. "It will be two or three months before we can appraise the Salk vaccine."

SO FAR THIS year 64 cases of poliomyelitis have been reported to the Health Department compared to 44 for the same period last year.

Only one case has been reported from McKean County in the four-county area where second grade youngsters were administered the vaccine.

Youngsters were given the inoculations in three stages in McKean, Centre, Mercer and Clinton. The youngest contracting polio was of pre-school age.

THE BIGGEST case record in recent years was in 1952 when 1,942 cases were recorded. Last year the total was more than 1,500 cases.

Meanwhile, Dr. James D. Purvis, Health Department epidemiologist reported the state has on hand 70,000 cubic centimeters of gamma globulin for use in reducing the crippling effects of polio.

Twenty centimeters of gamma globulin is the maximum dose administered to persons with household contacts with polio.

THE SALK vaccine, in contrast to gamma globulin, is claimed by its supporters to provide positive immunity to polio.

Counties reporting more than one isolated case so far this year are Allegheny and Erie, each with eight; Lancaster, 6; Philadelphia 5, and Lycoming, 3.

New Atom Industrial Uses Range From Treating Pork Chop To Testing Packages

By Frank Carey
(Associated Press Science Reporter)

ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP)—Possible new uses for the atom in industry—ranging from treating pork chops to assuring that your cigarette is fully packed—were described yesterday by atomic scientists.

The ideas were presented at the closing session of an International Congress on Nuclear Engineering, sponsored at the University of Michigan by the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

Dr. L. E. Brownell and several U. M. colleagues, declaring it previously has been shown experimentally that a certain dosage of atomic radiation applied to pork can sterilize it against possibility of causing "trichinosis" in a pork eater, said they had worked out a design for a radiation device applicable to pork production lines.

THEY SAID they figure that with such a device, pork could be irradiated at a cost of less than one-fourth of a cent per pound, using a production rate of 2,000 hogs a day.

The device, placed handy to the production line where future pork roasts and pork chops would come into position, would contain a radioactive material originally produced in an atomic "furnace."

Researchers G. D. Calkins and Meyer Pobereskin of the Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus, Ohio, told how the atom might be put to work "inspecting" cigarettes to assure that they contain just the right amount of tobacco—neither too little nor too much.

They said a "density gauge" instrument containing a radioactive material could be arranged in such a way that cigarettes moving on a conveyor belt would pass through part of the instrument, receiving an application of atomic rays.

THE CIGARETTES would pass through in small groups at a time. Their density—the amount of tobacco in them—would be measured in terms of the amount of radiation they cause to be "scattered" back. Cigarettes not measuring up to specifications would be automatically shagged from the conveyor belt.

The Battelle team also listed various other possible applications of the busybody atom, such as measuring the moisture content of paper, tobacco and various chemicals.

And they said the atom already

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Dauphin County Court yesterday fixed July 19 for oral argument on a petition by a Scranton warehouse firm seeking to hold up award of a State Liquor Control Board contract to Arnold Bisconti of Nanticoke.

The Quakenbush Warehouse Co. filed an equity suit in the court to prevent the board and the Department of Property and Supplies from awarding the contract through bids obtained April 15.

The bids were sought for storage, handling and delivery of liquor and supplies of the board for the Scranton district for three years beginning August 15.

Bisconti does not own a warehouse, but has leased one under construction to be finished by August 1.

NOW... individual temperature control in each room, at a cost which permits its use in any home or building

You never saw anything like it. With SelectTemp you have a compact heating unit, with its own individual thermostat, in every room, including bathrooms. The same low-pressure steam which carries heat to each unit operates a steam turbine driven fan which quietly circulates filtered warm air. Circulation is constant, not "on-and-off." No electric wiring is required for thermostat or fan.

Think of the comfort of having every room kept at just the temperature the occupants prefer. Cost? Very reasonable. Little more—or no more—than for many heating systems with only one thermostat in the whole house. Ideal for modernization and for new construction.

Come in—see SelectTemp in actual operation. Or telephone for free catalog folder.
